1 Montreal - Grand Canyon - Charlevoix (L'Isle-Aux-Coudres)

You will leave Montreal at 07:00am. It takes around 4 hours to drive to the Grand Canyon ($10). It has the numerous viewpoints of the Canyon and the three suspended bridges. The highest cliff of a height of 180 feet, makes it possible to appreciate the vertiginous notch of the glacial era, which was dug by the force of the imposing St.-Anne fall (271 feet) in the rock of 900 million years of the Canadian Shield. You will then take a ferry to L'Isle-Aux-Coudres, whose name Jacques Cartier is responsible for. Afterwards you will visit the Cidrerie and the Verger Pedneault, economuseum of apple growers ($2), the Museum Les Voitures d'Eau ($4) and Les Moulins de L'Isle-aux-Coudres ($9). Then you will take the ferry back to your hotel for the night. Hotel: Chateau Mont-Sainte-Anne or similar.

2 Whale Watching -St.- Anne de Beaupré- Montreal

You will get up at 07:00am. You will embark on a cruise in Baie Ste-Catherine which is an hour away to enjoy 3 hours' whales watching ($55). In the afternoon you will make a short visit to the Charlevoix Casino, the most beautiful casino in Quebec. You will also visit the famous 5 star hotel: Fairmont Le Manoir Richelieu. On the way back to Montreal, you will visit the Basilica of St.- Anne de Beaupré - one of Canada's most famous Catholic Shrines and places of pilgrimage. You will then leave for Montreal and arrive around 20:00pm.
